

Brown Bag Lunch Series

When: Fourth Thursday of every month through June 2018
Where: UHNBC Learning and Development Centre, Room 0505
12:15pm-1:00pm (in person or by webcast/teleconference)
Who: Anyone with an interest in Health Research

September 28, 2017 - The Developmental Origin of Health and Disease: A Sex and Gender Perspective, Presented by: Annie Duchesne PhD, UNBC

October 26, 2017 - Strategy for Patient Orientated Research (SPOR), Presented by: Tammy Hoefler, Northern Health, Rachel Wells, UNBC, and Colleen McGavin and Dan Enjo, BC SUPPORT Unit

November 23, 2017 - Promoting Mental Health and Well-being of Nak'azdli Elders using intergenerational digital storytelling: Findings From The Nak'azdli Lha'hutit'en Project, Presented by: Dr. Shannon Freeman, UNBC School of Nursing and Genevieve (Jenny) Martin, Nak'azdli Health Centre

January 25, 2018 - Proteoglycans in Breast Cancer, Presented by: Dr. Sean Maurice, UBC Faculty of Medicine

February 22, 2018 - The Challenges of Rural Research, Presented by: Dr. Dave Snadden, UNBC Northern Medical Program

March 15, 2018 - Prince George Cardiac and Pulmonary Rehabilitation Program: Improving Exercise Capacity and Addressing Barriers and Facilitators to Continued Physical Activity, Presented by: Robin Roots, UBC Department of Physical Therapy, UNBC

April 26, 2018 - To Be Determined

May 24, 2018 - Exercising While Dialyzing: A Best Practices Implementation Feasibility Study, Presented by: Malgorzata Kaminska, UNBC Northern Medical Program

June 28, 2018 - Primary Care Providers Perception of Standardized Electronic Medication Monitoring Plans, Presented by: Benjamin Wou, Northern Health

Teleconference: 1-877-385-4099 Passcode: 8353420#

Webcast: <https://innovationdevelopment.webex.com>
Password: brownbag

For more information, e-mail idc@northernhealth.ca

Please feel free to bring your own lunch.