Come prepared to participate in an interactive setting for shared dialogue and learning about Interprofessional Collaborative Primary Maternity Care in BC. Whether you are looking to establish a collaborative practice in your community, to enhance interprofessional relationships, or to develop your collaborative knowledge and skills, this workshop will be an excellent opportunity to:

- gather information, tools, and resources;
- be part of cultivating a provincial community of practice; and
- network with colleagues from around the province.

Presented through large and small group sessions and activities, workshop topics will include:

- Interprofessional Collaboration - the What and Why?
- Billings and Remuneration - A Panel Discussion
- Connecting Pregnancy - Group Prenatal Care
- ACE Screening in BC - an emerging opportunity
- Getting an IPC practice up and running
- Improving IPC - Shared Care Success in Comox
- Creating a Provincial IPC Community of Practice
- Examples of Collaborative Innovation across BC

Expense forms will be available at the workshop to reimburse participants for the following:

For participants who live outside the Greater Vancouver Area:

- 1) Return travel to the Sheraton Vancouver Airport Hotel; by car, ferry, or economy airfare from within BC.
- 2) Up to two nights onsite accommodation at the Sheraton Vancouver Airport Hotel, at event rates (May 25 & 26).

And, for non-salaried physicians and midwives; 7 hours of sessional compensation will be provided.

This provincial workshop is a joint initiative of:
